Additional comments:

Resolution no.3: The payment on 15 May 2003 of a dividend of EUR 1.15 per share (together with a tax credit of EUR 0.575 for individuals) was approved. This dividend is 25% higher than the dividend paid for the financial year 2001.

Resolutions no.6 and 7: These two resolutions relate to the renewal of the term of office of the director representing employee shareholders. In the election on 19 February 2003, the employee shareholders elected the candidates who were proposed to the vote of this General Meeting. They were the two candidates who won the highest number of votes, Mr Pierre Alanche and Mr Philippe Chartier. The shareholders appointed Mr Pierre Alanche as a director representing the employees who are shareholders.

Resolutions no.9 and 10: The appointment by the Board of Directors of Mrs Dominique de La Garanderie and Mr Marc Ladreit de Lacharrière as directors was ratified. This brings the number of independent directors, as defined in the Bouton report, to five.

Resolution no.16: The auditors' report on the remuneration of non-voting shares was approved. A coupon of EUR 19.49 (including a variable part of EUR 9.20) will therefore be paid on 24 October 2003.

Resolution no.17: the total amount of directors' fees to be divided among the directors was set henceforth as EUR 600,000 per year. As regards the remuneration of its directors, [the amount paid by Renault] is the average amount for CAC 40 companies.

Resolution no.18: The General Meeting authorised the Board of Directors to trade in the company's own shares. A notice relating to a share buyback programme was filed with the *Commission des Opérations de Bourse*¹ which approved it under No. 03-229 on 7 April 2003. The main aim of this programme is to purchase shares to cover the stock options granted to employees every year.

Resolution no.27: Renault wishes to encourage employees to become shareholders. In this context, a new authorisation was granted to increase the company's capital by up to 4% of said capital for five years, [with this increase being] reserved for employees.

Resolution no.28: The age limit for performing the duties of Chairman of the Board of directors of Renault was raised to 70 years of age.
